Boston, May 26.—The highest general average work for the Boston University Law School course obtained by any student in the last ten years has been achieved by Charles William Mulcahy of Hardwick, Vt. It was announced to-day by Dean Homer Albers.

Mr. Mulcahy's mark was 945. He completed the three years' course in two years, and in that period succeeded last December in passing the examination admitting him to practice in Massachusetts.

ONLY TWO EVER RANKED HIGHER.

Also he is the winner of the Ordronaux prize of $75, devised from a fund of $2,000 bequeathed by Dr. John Ordronaux, a former lecturer at the school—an award "not only for examination marks, but also for work done in class and court rooms, and for general character and conduct."

In several courses Mr. Mulcahy earned the mark of 100. The most noteworthy of these was "Conflict of Laws," wherein no student was ever before in the history of the school known to reach such a grade.

The only times this Vermont boy's record has ever been surpassed was by two men now teaching at the school—Prof. Frank L. Simpson in 1886 and Professor Chandler M. Wood in 1906. The general average of each was 95.5.

Mr. Mulcahy was born in Johnson, Vt., in 1881, the son of Mrs. Carrie Mulcahy. For the last 15 years Hardwick, where he is a member of Bronson Council, K. of C., has been his home.

After four years at Middlebury College he was graduated with honors in 1912. In his junior year he was president of his class. For three years he was a third baseman, and an outfielder on the base-

For one year after graduation he was employed in the law office in Hardwick of Dutton & Mulcahy, the latter being a brother, Bernard J. Mulcahy, who was graduated from the Boston University Law School with honors in 1909.
Probably Mr. Mulcahy will practice law in Boston, but he is undecided. At the law school he was not looked upon as a "grind," the term applied to a student who takes no interest in anything except his books and his struggle for high marks. He is exceedingly popular, but pretentious by nature. He is a member there
